

Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535

Section 117. In the management of a mutual fund, a securities company may set up and manage a mutual fund only when its application to set up the mutual fund had been given an approval by the Office in accordance with the rules, conditions and procedures as specified in the notification of the SEC.
