

Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535

Section 100. The appointment of any person to be an agent or broker of a securities company shall require prior approval from the Office.

Application for an approval and the granting of an approval shall be in accordance with the rules, conditions and procedures as specified in the notification of the SEC.
