

The Derivatives Act

B.E. 2546

SECTION 18. In order to protect customers, maintain stability of the financial system or control the risks arising from derivatives, the SEC shall have the power to specify in its notification the rules with which derivatives business operators shall comply.
