

Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535

Section 105. A securities company shall prepare its accounts stating true and accurate business operation and financial condition, which must conform to the accounting standards as specified by a professional institution approved by relevant government authorities and in accordance with additional regulations specified in the notification of the SEC.
