

Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535

---

Section 110. A securities company shall open its office for business during business hours and close its office on the days specified by the Office, unless permission has been granted by the Office to open or close its office at any other hours or days.

---