

Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535

Section 147. During any two year period, if any securities company does not undertake securities business of the type so licensed in the volume as specified in the SEC notification, the Minister shall have the power to revoke the license to operate all or any type of securities businesses so licensed upon the recommendation of the SEC.
