

Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535

---

Section 230. Securities companies may jointly establish an association related to securities business with an object of promoting, without seeking profit or sharing income among themselves, securities business, only by virtue of the provisions of this Act.

---