

Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535

---

Section 116. In operating the business of securities underwriting, a securities company shall comply with the rules, conditions and procedures as specified in the notification of the SEC. In this regard, the SEC may also specify fees or service charges which the securities company may charge its customers for the performing underwriting service.

---