

Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535

Section 65. The offer for sale of securities to the public or any person may be made only when the registration statement and the draft prospectus which have been filed with the Office by the promoters of a public limited company, a company or owner of securities have become effective.
