

Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535

Section 58. In cases where the Office is of the opinion that the documents or reports furnished by the company which issues securities in accordance with Section 32, Section 33 or Section 34 are incomplete or ambiguous, or in case of emergency or any other case which is likely to affect the rights and interests of securities holders or the decision-making on investment or change in the securities price of the company, the Office shall have the power to do one or more of the following:

- (1) instruct the company to submit additional reports or documents;
 - (2) instruct the director, manager, or person with power of management over the company to provide additional explanation;
 - (3) instruct the company to arrange an audit by an auditor and report the result of the audit to the Office and disclose the information to the public.
