

Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535

Section 60. For the benefit of disclosing information to the public about the condition and the business operation of a company which issues securities including the holding of securities in such company, the Office shall have the power to disclose the reports or the information received in accordance with Section 56, Section 57, Section 58 and Section 59 under the rules and procedures as specified in the notification of the SEC.
